Fosse Data / Kennel Club

Online Field Trial Entry System

FAQ

COMPETITORS

What is the Fosse Data/ Kennel Club Online System?

The Fosse Data Field Trial System was designed in co-operation with the Kennel Club to facilitate entering Field Trials and Working Tests online.

Who can use it?

Anyone can register, enter their dog(s) into the system and enter trials online. Go to www.fossedata.co.uk/fdft and simply start with the New User button. The system will guide you through the very simple process.

Whose Trials, Tests can I enter?

Clubs and Societies who adopt the system will list their Field Trials and/or Gundog Working Tests on it. When you log in, click on Trials to see the full list.

Why can't I see all every Field Trial?

The systems only listed Field Trials for which your dogs are eligible to enter. So if your dogs are Spaniels, you won't see trials for Retrievers or HPRs.

What will it cost me?

You will be charged an administration fee of £1.10 when you enter a trial. You will not be charged the Trial or Test entry fee at this point, you will be charged the entry fee only if you actually run on the day.

How many dogs can I enter?

You can register as many dogs as you wish on the system. You can enter up to 2 dogs into a Field Trial as first and second preference dogs. You can change the preference at any time up to the point of the draw.

My dog has a just won a Field Trial

Congratulations! Now go and edit the dog's details, you'll see that there is a section for you to enter the award. Remember to update it as you progress from Novice to Open.

I've entered a Trial. How will I know if I've got a run?

After entries for the trial has closed, the Field Trial Secretary will perform the draw which will then be sent automatically to all those who have entered.

I don't want to enter online.

You don't have to. Send in your postal entry as normal.

Who can see my details?

Only you. Your personal details are recorded to comply with Kennel Club regulations for entries. They won't be shared with anyone. Your email address will be used to communicate with you if need be and to send you the draw.

We have dogs in different Ownerships

No problem. Simply set up a new Ownership or Partnership by registering each one as a New User and choosing a new login Id.

I'm the Owner but not the Handler.

There is a space in the Owner Details for you to enter the name of the Handler.

When do entries close?

The date and time that entries close will be published on the Trial Schedule which is available from the Club or Society concerned. This is programmed into the system which won't allow entries after the scheduled time.

I need to withdraw from the Trial.

No problem. Log on and go to the trial concerned and then click on Dog Details, you will see a
